15 Up-and-Coming Destinations Around the World...

Historically, travelers have concentrated on countries in the northern hemisphere. But today, arrivals and departures are happening all over the world - and with much greater frequency. In fact, tourist spend is growing at a faster rate in the southern hemisphere than it is in the north, and tourism everywhere is increasing. For travelers always seeking out new places to visit before they become too popular or touristy, these are the 15 countries to watch.

What to Buy in Italy, Away from the Tourist Traps...

While today's souvenirs are easier to carry on a plane, many feel mass-produced and cliché. That's why you should shop at locally owned businesses-plus, as the nation struggles with the impact of ever-growing tourist numbers, it's a respectful and responsible way to travel. Whether it's food, fashion, or hand-crafted goods you're after, here's what to buy in Italy's major cities.

Kara provided lots of information so that I feel extremely comfortable and knowledgeable on little things as well as bigger things to be aware of.

We are excited to be going to Peru!

We will definitely get in touch with her for other personal vacations.

Warm Regards,
Maureen Z.

DFW Airport Landing More Global Destinations...

Australia, Canada, South Korea, Italy, Japan, China and Qatar. Those are just some of the countries that have been added to Dallas Fort Worth International Airport's global destinations lineup as the airport has bulked up its offerings over the past several years for business and leisure travel. Thirty-seven international flights have been added at DFW Airport in the past five years. Six have been discontinued, leaving 31 active international flights added during the period. Five additional foreign carriers have begun flying to DFW in that span.
