CLIENT CORNER

ARTA Travel Client Letters

We received a call after we boarded informing us that we had a wine and cheese plate and asking us when we would like to have it delivered.

We checked the calendar and picked the one sea day - that is today. Promptly at 1PM, a waiter brought a tablecloth for Fodor's Holiday Gift Guide 2016: Gear & Gadgets...

Instead of getting frustrated and overwhelmed by trying to find the perfect gifts for the important people on your list, just think of it as matchmaking. Do they enjoy travel? Then look for gadgets and gear to add a little comfort and fun to their travels next year.

our table looking over the veranda and placed a beautiful spread of cheese, crackers, rolls, and wine. Will send you a photo when we get home.

This has been a wonderful cruise and well worth the upgrade to the balcony. Everyone is so friendly, the crew is excellent and the scenery outstanding.

The PG is a great way to see French Polynesia and we absolutely enjoyed the upgrade to the veranda. Thank you for catching that and letting us know so quickly and for getting us the special.

Thank you again,

Carolyn and Bob

Hotels offer better, faster Wi-Fi...

Hotel guests have repeatedly complained about the state of Wi-Fi while traveling, and hotels are finally heeding the call for improvements.

In addition to increasingly offering free Wi-Fi, especially to loyalty club members, hotel companies are requiring that their properties improve the quality of the signal they offer. The efforts are in response to guests using multiple devices to stream, download and upload larger files.
